MEDIA KIT

Hi, I'm Melissa!

AUTHOR AND SPEAKER

ABOUT MELISSA:

Melissa Saulnier is an author and speaker who transforms pain into purpose through her powerful testimony of survival and triumph. After escaping thirty-three years of abusive marriages, she rebuilt her life from financial ruin to independence, pursuing education and her writing career in her fifties.

Her book "Where Light Bleeds Through" chronicles her journey from crushing to flourishing, offering hope to women who feel trapped by their circumstances. Melissa speaks with raw honesty about family and domestic abuse, financial recovery, overcoming shame, and discovering your authentic voice. Her message: your breaking points can become your breakthrough moments, and your story isn't over.

WHERE LIGHT BLEEDS THROUGH A MEMOIR BY MELISSA SAULNIER

Melissa combines vulnerability with strength, pain with purpose, and practical wisdom with spiritual insight. She addresses topics including recognizing and escaping abuse, rebuilding after betrayal, overcoming financial devastation, silencing shame, and discovering your authentic voice after years of being told who you should be.

Testimonials

"Melissa doesn't just tell you it gets better, she shows you exactly how she made it better, and gives you permission to believe you can too."

"Melissa doesn't sugarcoat the hard stuff. Toxic families. Financial ruin. Loneliness of starting over. Her chapter on grace alone, how to forgive without becoming a doormat, is worth the price."

GROUP STUDY INFORMATION (HOW MANY SESSIONS, WHAT'S INCLUDED):

◆ Authentic Honest Recommended

Melissa Saulnier's manuscript is a masterclass in narrative vulnerability. Each chapter weaves personal stories, honest, raw, and unembellished, with metaphors that serve not as ornament but as scaffolding for truth. The grape-to-wine analogy in Chapter 1, for instance, deepens the reader's understanding of suffering, not just as an event, but as a transformative process. These stories build empathy, invite reflection, and create connective tissue between the author's trauma and the reader's own.

Melissa Saulnier's words speak directly to the bruised parts of the reader's spirit. Her candor invites introspection, not in a way that burdens the reader, but in a way that comforts and encourages. Many readers will feel seen. Many will feel less alone. Many will reconsider what it means to heal, to forgive, to stand. Each chapter is a call to reflect without pressure, a conversation rather than a sermon.

CONTINUING THE TRANSFORMATION

Melissa Saulnier's writing is not just cathartic, it is constructive. She reclaims her story not to gain attention but to give others courage to reclaim theirs. Her words act like a steady hand on the reader's back: not pulling, not pushing, just present. She turns her suffering into service, her healing into hospitality. That is the power of authors at their best.

Where Light Bleeds Through meets and exceeds the standards expressed in The Power of Authors. Its voice is human and humble. Its message is urgent but never aggressive. Its purpose is to restore, not to impress.

FROM CRUSHING TO COURAGE

4-45 MINUTE SESSIONS

Session

This session explores how life's most painful experiences often serve as the "crushing" process that transforms us into something more valuable than we were before. Like grapes that must be crushed to become wine, our suffering can produce something beautiful, if we choose the right response to the pressure.

Reclaiming Your Ground:

BREAKING FREE FROM ORDINARY

5-45 MINUTE SESSIONS

Session

This session explores the revelation that extraordinary people set their own trends, create their own categories, and write their own rules transformed how I approached every aspect of my life. While choosing extraordinary brings conflict and resistance from those still trapped in ordinary thinking, it also brings the profound satisfaction of living authentically aligned with our highest potential.

FROM TEACUP TO ORCHARD

5-45 MINUTE SESSIONS

Session

This session explores the courage to leave familiar but limiting environments, to endure the temporary shock of transplanting, and to build ecosystems where everyone can thrive, these became the hallmarks of authentic flourishing. The greenhouse of protected but stunted existence gave way to the wild, risky, beautiful reality of orchard living, where purpose grows freely and potential knows no bounds.

MENTALITY RENOVATION

5-45 MINUTE SESSIONS

Session

This session explores that mental renovation isn't about adding more positive thoughts to a broken system; it's about completely rebuilding the infrastructure of how we think. This fundamental shift from past mentality to future thinking became the foundation upon which every other area of my life could be rebuilt. Here are the essential truths that can guide your own mental renovation.

STANDING FIRM

5-45 MINUTE SESSIONS

Session

The most profound realization was that sometimes our lowest moments aren't punishment but preparation, isolation isn't abandonment but incubation, and struggle isn't failure but refinement. Standing firm in the face of such toxicity isn't about proving others wrong, it's about refusing to let their limitations define your reality and trusting that truth has a way of surfacing while your authentic self will always outlast any fictional version they create.
